

The Great Behaviour Breakdown:

Bryan Post's follow-up to Beyond Consequences

24, 25 & 26 November 2015, Birmingham

A 3-day Intensive workshop that provides step-by-step instructions on how to effectively reduce and eliminate 27 difficult behaviours. Family Futures' trainers have been trained in the USA by a Post Institute trainer in Bryan Post's latest course for parents and professionals, The Great Behaviour Breakdown. The first day will give participants an opportunity to explore the Stress Model from a personal perspective, drawing on the work of Bryan Post as well as Daniel Siegel and Dan Hughes' Brain Based Parenting (Wiley, 2011).

This course will provide:

- *Adoptive parents, foster carers and professionals with an easy to understand 'Stress Model' and how it impacts behaviour.
- *Clear practical strategies and interventions for parenting or supporting parenting of traumatised children, based on this model.
- *A supportive and empathetic forum for parents to meet with other parents and discuss the challenges that they face and for professionals to gain a better understanding of the impact for parents of living with children who have experienced trauma.
- * Free on-going optional monthly group online support following the training.
- * The opportunity to purchase one-to-one online support following the training.
- * Handbook and text book included in the fee.

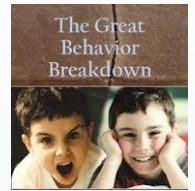

Who should attend?

Adoptive parents, Prospective Adopters awaiting placements, Foster carers, Social Workers (Adoption, Fostering, Teachers, Health visitors), Parents of abused/traumatised children.
